Terms and Conditions

- The amount deposited is for the fixed term stated above and the interest rate applicable on receipt of the deposit by FCCL.
- If the deposit is to be re-invested on maturity, the interest rate applicable will be the rate offered by the FCCL at that date and will be fixed for the term of the investment.
- The Credit Union reserves the right to alter the published interest rates offered on term deposits without notice.
- Interest on term deposits is paid on maturity, except in the case of a 12 month term deposits where you may have interest paid monthly.
- Requests for early redemption will result in your interest being calculated at the “at call” savings account interest rate.
- Interest on this deposit will commence from the date the funds are received.
- Written notice of maturity will be given prior to the maturity date.
- If you fail to provide us with instructions upon maturity, the deposit will be reinvested for the same period at the prevailing interest rate at that time. However, you have 14 days after the maturity date to advise the Firefighters Credit Union of your final investment decision.
- If we have mail returned for the account and are unable to contact you we may, upon maturity, redeem the term deposit to a transactional account to be dealt with under the unclaimed money legislation (Dormancy – refer to Account Facilities Conditions of Use).
